Remembering the Trio

8 May 1916 - 3 August 1993

Swami Chinmayanandaji, a "visionary, who saw the need to inculcate India's great culture and spiritual traditions through the English medium, among an 'elite' class of people, who had moved away from this heritage". He was a great scholar and a great teacher. An extraordinary orator and a masterly exponent of India's culture, its literary heritage and scriptural lore. Today he is one of the world-figures who have hoisted the flag of India's spiritual heritage not only in this country but also in the other countries of the world.

M.S. Subbulakshmi, was one of India's greatest musicians. A legendary vocalist in the classical Carnatic style of southern India, she captivated audiences in India and around the world. Both as a performer and a public figure, she represented the best in traditional and modern Indian values - grace, humility and humanity. Her silk saris, the way she put flowers in her hair, her turmeric-washed face and the serenity she exuded during her concerts all pointed to a person of rare dignity.

Swami Chidananda Saraswati was President of the Divine Life Society, Rishikesh, India. He is well known in India as a yogi, jnani and spiritual leader. He succeeded Sivana-nda Saraswati, who founded the Society.

In 1948, Swami Sivananda blessed Swami Chidananda as the General Secretary of The Divine Life Society and said "Chidananda is a Jeevanmukhta, a great saint, an ideal Yogi, a param-bhakta and a great Sage. He was born to fulfill a great mission. He is the torch bearer of my mission". What a great blessing by a Guru!
